Subject:	Ergo event -- Oct 1

Mr. Prime Minister:

Thanks for taking the time to speak with us today. We're very excited about this event and would love for you to be a part of it. As you consider our request, I'll simply summarize what we discussed today, for your reference.

The event: Ergo is hosting an intimate, confidential gathering of global business and government leaders for a closed working session about geopolitical risk and opportunities. This is an exclusive, off-the-record event limited to fewer than 100 C-suite executives from the world's leading investment firms, banks, and corporations, as well as current and former officials from the highest ranks of the U.S. and closely allied governments. Senator George Mitchell will serve as chairman. Participants will engage in tightly structured and focused conversations about the most critical political, economic, and security issues facing businesses and governments today. The venue for this all-day event, which will conclude with a formal dinner, is the Rainbow Room, at the top of 30 Rockefeller Center.

What: Global Flashpoints Dialogue 2015

When: Thursday, October 1, 2015 – All day, including dinner

Where: The Rainbow Room, Rockefeller Center

The participants: Senator George Mitchell, former WH National Security Advisor Stephen Hadley, Ambassador Frank Wisner, David Cohen, NYPD Commissioner Bill Bratton, Gen. Stanley McChrystal, Adm. Eric Olson, Gen. Michael Hayden, Barry Sternlicht (founder of Starwood), Peter Thiel, Bill Ford (Chairman of Ford), Scott Bessent, and many other senior business and government leaders (not all have confirmed yet).

Our request: We would love for you to join us for as much time as you're able. We would like to offer you a prominent speaking role, perhaps introduced by Sen. Mitchell (who speaks highly of you and sends his regards).

We believe this event will be a major business development tool (which is why we're doing it) and will lead to significant success for the company in which we all can share. We hope you can join us.

I'll touch base with you at the beginning of next week. Feel free to contact me in the meantime with any questions. Safe travels.

Best,

Evan
